FORMATION OF THE CLADDING REGULATORY REGIME REVIEW ADVISORY PANEL

As part of SCDF's review of the fire safety regulations and certification processes relating to the use of Aluminium Composite Panels (ACPs) as cladding, SCDF will convene a Cladding Regulatory Regime Review Advisory Panel from 1 February 2018. The panel will support the review of existing fire safety regulations by providing industry feedback to SCDF's recommendations and assisting in the eventual implementation of recommendations arising from the review.

2. The Advisory Panel comprises key representatives from government agencies, certification bodies, the building industry and academia. The full composition of the panel can be found at Annex.

3. Results of the review will be announced by end-2018.
